

Instructions for Abstracts

All students presenting at ADVS Student Research Symposium are expected to submit an abstract.

Format: The body of the abstract should contain 1,800 characters (including spaces) or less. Make sure to format your abstract according to the following: use font times new roman size 14, only first words or proper names capitalized (the rest lower case), single spaced, indicate author's affiliation(s) with superscript numerical notations. Do not use special characters or symbols. You can find an abstract example on the website. The deadline to submit abstracts is Wednesday, August 4, 2021 by 5 pm.

*Note: Late submissions and abstracts, presentations and posters not adhering to instructions will result in point deduction.

Submission: All abstracts will be submitted online through Canvas. Follow the instructions below to submit your abstract:

- Name your file using the following naming convention: “last name_first name”.
- Log into Canvas using your university ID and strong password (<https://usu.instructure.com/>).
- Select 2021 ADVS Student Research Symposium.
- In the bottom of the main page click “Submit Here” and then select “Abstract Submission”.
- Click on “Submit”, upload your file and click “Submit Assignment”.
